9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

Does $2250 monthly stipend received by a participant in this program count as earned income for CalFresh? The California Senate Fellows program is a graduate level, full-time paid fellowship. Fellows are assigned to the offices of a senator or policy committee and work as part of the public policy staff team in the Capitol. According to the website brochure the participant must be prepared for full-time employment, Monday through Friday; benefits include health, dental and vision, paid enrollment and student fees, student loan deferment, 6 graduate units and student and staff privileges.

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

The $2250 stipend counts as income in the CalFresh budget. According to the information provided, the California State University system provides fellows with the position of having dual status as a CSU employee and a graduate student.

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

CDSS agrees with the county's proposed response.
